

Terms and Conditions:

Haiku North America will provide space in the Book Fair for all authors or presses to display their books.

Any persons looking to sell books at the Haiku North America Book Fair must complete this form and return it via email to hna.cfo@gmail.com by June 15, 2023. Be sure to include the author or press' name, a physical address, and a full listing of books for sale by title, author, and price. If selling more than twelve books please use a second form.

This form will be taped to the table space containing your books. It will also be used by Book Fair staff to determine book prices for sale.

Book prices must be in whole U.S. dollars (i.e. $7.00; not $6.99).

All books will be sold by a Haiku North America representative.

Haiku North America will settle with authors / presses within one month after the conference.

The Haiku North America Book Fair will offer sales by cash, check, and credit card. Authors / presses are responsible for any electronic fees for books paid for by credit card.

Haiku North America will secure the books to the best of their ability. Haiku North America will not be held liable for any damage, theft, or other losses

All authors / presses agree to remove all books from the Book Fair prior to noon, on Sunday, July 2, 2023. The Book Fair space will be closed at that time and all remaining books will be discarded.
