To Seattle Center Northwest Rooms and FROM I-5 North and South Bound

(this is not the most direct route, but tends to be least confusing)

- Take the Mercer Street/Seattle Center exit 167
- At the first traffic light, turn right onto Fairview.
- At the next light, turn left onto Valley Street, which becomes Broad Street.
- Turn right onto Denny Way, go .08 mile.
- Take the third right onto First Ave N (one way street heading North).
 - Inn at Queen Anne is at 505 First Ave N
 - Northwest Rooms are just across the street
 - MarQueen Hotel: continue a couple blocks north, turn left at Roy St, and immediately left again on Queen Anne Ave N (one way street heading South), the hotel is on the left at 600 Queen Anne Ave N

Local Attendees: MASS TRANSIT ENCOURAGED! MORE affordable than parking.

Metro Web-Based Trip Planning: Seattle Center has 15 bus routes with frequent connections to Downtown and several neighborhoods. Use Metro's automated Trip Planner to plan your transit trip to Seattle Center from anywhere in the region. Just enter your trip's origin, destination (e.g., Key Arena) and your travel time and you'll receive, on-screen, a detailed itinerary telling you what bus to take, where to catch it, where and how to transfer and how much it will cost to ride. Try it out by doing an Internet search for "Metro Online Trip Planner."

Seattle Center Operated Parking Lots:

- 1st Avenue North Garage: between John and Thomas Street (open 24 hours, but parking is paid in up to 10 hour increments- when I checked it out it was $10 for 10 hours) Closest to our meeting rooms There is a note this garage is not available for public parking during STORM games, which is Friday at 7 p.m. I called customer service and she seemed to think that this wouldn't be a problem for our guests, since we are not there for the game. Carpool parking discounts are not available.
- Mercer Garage: Third Avenue N. & Roy Street
- 5th Ave N Garage: Fifth Avenue N. & Republican Street

General Rate Information:

- PARKING RATES fluctuate with demand. Higher rates apply when heavy demand is anticipated. Lower rates are in effect when overall parking demand is low.
- OVER-SIZED PARKING may be available in 5th Ave Parking and is twice the daily rate.
- INFORMATION: For recorded Parking, Traffic and Transportation Information, please call (206) 233-3989.
- Parking payments are valid for 0-10 hours of continuous parking. All parking is available on a first come/first served basis except in the Reserved Area of the Mercer Street Garage, or by other contractual obligations.
- PARKING STALLS FOR GUEST WITH DISABLED PARKING DECALS are available in our lots and garages. Guest using these stalls are charged the regular fee for parking. When the lot full signs are out, guest should check with that attendant on duty, where available, to determine if disabled stalls are available

Other Parking Lots and Parking for Hotel Guests:

There are several lots surrounding the area of Seattle Center. They are operated by private companies, who have different pricing structures. Diamond, Republic and United Parking are their names. Rates are higher than the parking at the Seattle Center garages. The closest private lot to our location is at 142 Republican Ave N (between First Ave N and Warren Ave N).

Hotel Parking:

The MarQueen and Inn and Queen Anne provide valet parking for $15 per night, added to your room bill. It is very limited, and the concierge told me that they will coach you on where to park if their lot is full. They said the rates around the hotels are comparable to what is charged by the hotel.
